

In the Houses of Parliament, on the occasion of the national holiday of 15 March, Mr. András Kotschy was awarded the Széchenyi prize by Mr. János Áder, President of the Republic, Mr. Viktor Orbán, Prime Minister (in the picture) and Mr. László Kövér, President of the Parliament. It is the highest recognition of the technical, scientific and constructive achievements. Dipl. Phys.-eng. acoustic A. Kotschy got the prize for his outstanding research and design achievements, especially for the collaboration on the László Papp Sports Arena – Budapest, the Agora Cultural Centres and the Concert Hall of the Kodály Centre in Pécs.

24.03.2014